Congregation: _____

In addition to receiving immigration updates from the Office of Social Justice (OSJ), I'm interested in:

Partnering with OSJ to further immigration efforts in my congregation

Attending a town hall or meeting with my Member of Congress

A large rectangular area with a white background and horizontal black lines, intended for writing a postcard. The area is framed by decorative borders: a top border with red and white diagonal lines, a bottom border with red and white diagonal lines, and side borders with red and black diagonal lines.

Use the following ideas as starting points for writing to your member of Congress on the postcard above:

In the Bible, strangers are often used by God to bring blessing. I have experienced this blessing in my life. Immigrants have blessed me by _____.

Only Congress can change our broken immigration laws. I ask that you would work to reform our broken immigration laws and enact policies that reflect the truth that immigrants are a blessing, not a burden.

I used to think _____, and now I know _____.

I'm a Christian who cares about immigrants and immigration reform because _____.
